

International Workshop

Exchange of experiences on addressing Trafficking in Human Beings for sexual exploitation

 <http://www.phit.ub.edu/>

 phit.project@ub.edu

 @PHITProject

Saló de Graus, Faculty of Law
University of Barcelona

20th November 2017

Project PHIT is funded by the European Commission

Co-funded by the Internal Security Fund of the European Commission

Program

This workshop will give the opportunity to the speakers and the audience to share practical experiences, in order to learn and know more about THB for sexual exploitation, and more specifically its consequences on the psychological health of the victims.

- 09.30 h Welcome of the participants
- 10.00 h Inauguration and presentation of project PHIT
Markus González Beilfuss – Head of project PHIT
- 10.20 h Project PHIT development and its practical implementations

Alba Alfageme Casanova – Research coordinator for PHIT project

Xavier Cortés Camacho – Head of the Unity of Trafficking in Human Beings, Mossos d’Esquadra
- 11.00 h International experiences on addressing THB for sexual exploitation

Helga Konrad – Head of the Regional Implementation Initiative on Preventing and Combating all Forms of Human Trafficking, Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe

Carrie Pemberton Ford – Director of the Cambridge Centre for Applied Research in Human Trafficking

Cornelius Katona – Medical and Research Director, Helen Bamber Foundation
- 12.00 h Debate
- 12.45 h Conclusions

Dr Helga Konrad

Head of the Regional Implementation Initiative on Preventing and Combating all Forms of Human Trafficking, Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe (Austria)

The Regional Implementation Initiative on Preventing and Combating all Forms of Human Trafficking promotes cooperation between entities and countries from the Danube region and foster the exchange of good practices and knowledge in terms of prevention and fight against THB, from a human rights perspective.

Dr Carrie Pemberton Ford

Director of the Cambridge Centre for Applied Research in Human Trafficking (United Kingdom)

Dr Carrie Pemberton Ford leads an international network of experts recognized by the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime that seeks to understand all aspects of THB and to share knowledge on this matter.

Pr Cornelius Katona

Medical and Research Director, Helen Bamber Foundation (United Kingdom)

The Helen Bamber foundation offers support programs to victims Trafficking in Human Beings and torture. Its team of professionals is internationally renowned for its expertise, especially on a therapeutic level. Cornelius Katona is a co-author of the report “Addressing Mental Health Needs in Survivors of Modern Slavery”.