

Program

Day: Thursday 29 November | 9am – 6pm

Place: Aula Magna, Faculty of Law, University of Barcelona (Avinguda Diagonal, 684)

- 9.00 h Registration
- 9.30 h Inauguration
Xavier Pons Ràfols – Dean of the Faculty of Law, University of Barcelona
Markus González Beilfuss – Head of PHIT Project
Presentation of PHIT Consortium – APRAMP, Fier, Proyecto esperanza, Sicar.cat, Catalan Government, University of Tilburg
- 10.15h Opening session
Kristiina Kangaspunta, Chief of the Crime Research Section, United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC)
- 10.45h Coffee break
- 11.15 h The Psychological Impact of Human Trafficking for Sexual Exploitation on the Survivors' Mental Health: Project PHIT Results
Moderator: Cornelius Katona, Helen Bamber Foundation
- Understanding psychological damage through the survivors' life histories
Alba Alfageme – University of Barcelona
 - Hearing of victims of trafficking taking into account PHIT
Leyla Khadraoui – University of Tilburg
 - Study of the immediate impact of THB for sexual exploitation from a psychiatric perspective.
Mar Ramos Gascon – Hospital Vall d'Hebron
- 13.30h Lunch break
- 15.00 h The experience of relevant stakeholders: results of the focus groups and interviews carried out during the project
Moderator: Verònica Gímez Fos, Unity of Trafficking in Human Beings, Barcelona City Hall
Leyla Khadraoui – University of Tilburg
Miguel Angel Soria – University of Barcelona
- 15.45h The consequences of the psychological impact of THB for sexual exploitation on legal proceedings: results of the analysis of proceedings in Spain and in the Netherlands
Moderator: Markus González Beilfuss, University of Barcelona
Teresa Rodríguez – University of Alcalá
Conny Rijken – University of Tilburg
- 16.30h Coffee break
- 16.45h The consequences of the psychological impact of THB for sexual exploitation on immigration files processings: results of the analysis of residency permits based on personal situation requests
Moderator: Helga Konrad, Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe
Markus González Beilfuss – University of Barcelona
- 17.15h The consequences of the psychological impact of THB for sexual exploitation on the States' international obligations
Moderator: Carrie Pemberton Ford, Cambridge Centre for Applied Research in Human Trafficking
Conny Rijken – University of Tilburg
- 17.45 h Conclusions
Markus González Beilfuss – University of Barcelona

Program

Day: Friday 30 November | 9am – 1.30pm

Place: Aula Magna, Faculty of Law, University of Barcelona (Avinguda Diagonal, 684)

9.00 h Registration

9.30 h Participation and integration of the project results in the NGO's interventions

Moderator: Rosa Codina Casas, Catalan Institute for Women

Anna Hernández Hérnica, Social worker specialized in THB survivors' support - Sicar.cat

Iskra Luz Orrillo Valencia, Psychologist and Head of the Health Department - Proyecto Esperanza

Bess Doornbos, Researcher – Fier

Representative of the ONG APRAMP

10.30 h Practical results of PHIT Project: tools to address the psychological impact of human trafficking for sexual exploitation

Moderator: Markus González Beilfuss, University of Barcelona

- Indicators to identify potential victims of THB for sexual exploitation, Alba Alfageme – University of Barcelona

- Recommendations to improve the psychological assessment and care of survivors, Alba Alfageme – University of Barcelona

11.10 – 11.30: Coffee break

- Security protocols and recommendations for victims and for professionals, Montse Roig – Interior Department, Catalan Government

- Presentation of a training module for law enforcement practitioners, Bess Doornbos – Fier

- Presentation of the video on legal proceedings, Quepo Foundation and University of Barcelona

13.00 h Conclusions

María Gavilán Rubio, Judge Magistrate of the Court of First Instance 99 (Madrid)

13.30 h End of the conference